EDUCATION

2021	MS, Health and Healthcare Research University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan
2020	PhD, Nursing The University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona Dissertation: Quantitative exploration of nurses' task-technology fit with the electronic health record using regression and computational ethnography (Chair: Sheila Gephart, PhD, RN, FAAN; Members: Kathleen Insel, Vignesh Subbian, Jane Carrington)
2012	MA, Education (Instructional Technologies) San Francisco State University, San Francisco, California Creative work: Virtual Electronic Health Record Training for Registered Nurses (Chair: Brian Beatty, PhD)
2006	BS, Nursing, Magna Cum Laude San Francisco State University, San Francisco, California

PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

2022–present	Assistant Professor, UCLA School of Nursing, Los Angeles, CA
2020–2022	National Clinician Scholar and Postdoctoral Research Fellow, University of Michigan, Institute for Healthcare Policy and Innovation / School of Nursing, Ann Arbor, MI
2019–2020	Lecturer / Adjunct Faculty, San Francisco State University, School of Nursing, San Francisco, CA
2017–2019	Nursing Research Fellow, Dignity Health Nursing Research, Sacramento, CA
2016–2018	Graduate Research Assistant, The University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ
2015–2020	Regional Clinical Informaticist and EHR Educator (Bay Area Service Area), Dignity Health, San Francisco, CA
2013–2015	Lecturer / Adjunct Faculty, San Francisco State University, School of Nursing, San Francisco, CA
2011–2015	Manager of Clinical Informatics, Sequoia Hospital, Redwood City, CA
2007–2011	Clinical Informatics Nurse, Sequoia Hospital, Redwood City, CA
2007–2008	Cardiovascular Data Nurse, Sequoia Hospital, Redwood City, CA
2006–2007	Staff Nurse, Stanford University Medical Center, Palo Alto, CA

HONORS AND AWARDS

2026 Dean's Award for Community Excellence, UCLA Joe C. Wen School of Nursing

2026 NIH All of Us and University of Arizona-Banner Health Data Fellows Program

2026	Nominee, Graduate Student Mentorship, UCLA Division of Graduate Education
2025	UCLA Society of Hellman Fellowship
2025	Trainee, All of Us IGNITE Biostatistics Core Train-the-Trainer
2024	Scholar, American Psychosomatic Society Inclusivity for Impact, Equity, and Engagement (I2EyE) Cohort Program
2024	Health Disparities Research Institute (HDRI) Scholar, NIH National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities
2023	Fellow, American Medical Informatics Association (FAMIA)
2022	Michigan Integrative Well-Being and Inequality Training Fellow
2020	Outstanding PhD Dissertation Award (Spring), The University of Arizona College of Nursing
2020	Distinguished Poster Award (Finalist), AMIA Annual Symposium
2017	Scholarship Endowment, The University of Arizona College of Nursing
2016	Winner, #WhyInformatics Video Contest, AMIA Annual Symposium, Chicago, IL
2012	Nursing Excellence Award in Leadership (EHR), Dignity Health, Sequoia Hospital
2006	Academic Excellence Award in Nursing, San Francisco State University School of Nursing
2003	Dean S. Lesher Scholarship, Diablo Valley College Academic Honors

TEACHING

Courses — Instructor (UCLA School of Nursing)

2026 Fall	N291C Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences III (PhD; Co-instructor, lead; enrollment 3)
2026 Fall	N208 Research in Nursing: Measurement of Outcomes (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 3)
2026 Summer	N411 Information Technology for Nursing Practice (DNP; Instructor; enrollment 25)
2026 Winter	N291A Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences I (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 3)
2025 Fall	N291C Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences III (PhD; Co-instructor, lead; enrollment 2)
2025 Spring	N206B Nursing Theory Development (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 3)
2025 Winter	N291C Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences III (PhD; Co-instructor; enrollment 3)
2025 Winter	N291A Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences I (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 3)
2024 Spring	N206B Nursing Theory Development (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 5)
2024 Winter	N291A Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences I (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 5, 1 audit)
2023 Spring	N204A Research Design and Critique (MSN; Co-instructor; enrollment 66)
2023 Winter	N291A Applied Statistics and Analytics for Health Sciences I (PhD; Co-instructor; enrollment 4, 9 audit)
2023 Winter	N596 Directed Independent Study or Research (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 1)
2022 Fall	N596 Directed Independent Study or Research (PhD; Instructor; enrollment 1)

Courses — Instructor (San Francisco State University)

2020 Spring	N703 Education and Informatics in Advanced Nursing Practice (Instructor; enrollment 17)
2019 Spring	N703 Education and Informatics in Advanced Nursing Practice (Instructor; enrollment 16)

2014 Spring	N703 Education and Informatics in Advanced Nursing Practice (Instructor; enrollment 15)
2013 Fall	N703 Education and Informatics in Advanced Nursing Practice (Instructor; enrollment 13)

Guest Lectures

2026 Spring	N299B, The giant leap: The use of AI in healthcare (PhD; UCLA)

2025 Winter	N299B Nursing Research, From patient care to blackboard: Lessons learned (PhD; UCLA)
2025 Winter	UCLA Health Research and Innovation Committee, Evidence-based practice and statistics
2024 Fall	N204A Research Design and Critique, Statistics and data analysis (MSN; UCLA)
2024 Spring	N204A Research Design and Critique, Statistics, data analysis, and critical appraisal of RCTs (UCLA)
2023 Fall	N204A Research Design and Critique, Statistical analysis (UCLA)
2021 Spring	NN631 Foundations of Nursing Informatics, EHR, clinical informatics, and meaningful use (University of Alabama, Birmingham)
2020 Fall	N811 Health Informatics for DNP, Human factors (DNP; University of Michigan)
2018 Spring	N703 Education and Informatics in Advanced Nursing Practice, Introduction to nursing informatics (MSN; San Francisco State University)
2016 Spring	N520 Medical/Surgical Nursing, Nursing informatics in acute care settings (MSN; San Francisco State University)

Invited Lectures

2026 Feb	The conversational interface: Vibe coding and the future of AI-assisted code generation. Michigan Integrative Well-Being and Inequality (MIWI), University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.
2025 Dec	Sociocultural determinants of diabetes: Stress, culture, and health equity. NURS 749 Interdisciplinary Research & Scholarship Seminar, University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

GRANTS AND TRAINING

Dollar amounts are direct costs.

Pending

Multiple Principal Investigator (MPI: Benjamin Galatzan, PhD, RN). $275,000 (direct costs). 2027–2029.
NIH/National Institute on Aging (R21)
AI chatbot use in care-seeking by older adults and caregivers
Explores how AI chatbots influence care-seeking decisions, including clinical appropriateness, decision clarity, confidence, and potential benefits and unintended consequences; findings will inform future chatbot design, safeguards, evaluation standards, and evidence-based guidance to support safer AI-assisted health decision-making.

Co-Principal Investigator (Co-PI: Kenrik Duru, MD). $1,920,000 (direct costs). 2027–2029.
PCORI Retrospective Observational CER Studies Leveraging Existing Data Sources
Comparative effectiveness of dual therapy vs. monotherapy for cardiokidney protection in patients with type 2 diabetes and chronic kidney disease
Assesses the comparative effectiveness of dual versus monotherapy regimens of GLP-1RAs, SGLT-2is, and finerenone on cardiokidney outcomes and identifies real-world adherence, persistence, and discontinuation patterns using three existing EHR data sources: UCHDW, CURE-CKD, and Optum Labs.

Active

Community Advisor (PI: Rey Paolo Ernesto J. Roca III). $5,000 (direct costs). 2026.
Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science, IMPACT Initiative (NEXUS Research Track)
Auditing the Algorithm: Whether AI Delivers Equitable Diabetes Care for the Communities South LA Serves
A community-engaged audit of popular AI tools, testing whether they provide complete, guideline-based diabetes self-management advice for the communities South Los Angeles serves.

Fellow. $2,000 (direct costs). 1/2026–8/2026.
NIH All of Us and University of Arizona-Banner Health 2026 Data Fellows Program
All of Us Research Workbench
An eight-month training, mentored research, and professional development program in the use of the All of Us Research Program dataset.

Co-Recipient (Co-Recipient: Dana Beck). $1,288 (direct costs). 12/2025–6/2026.
Center for the Study of Women, Barbra Streisand Center at UCLA
Faculty Writing Retreat Grant
Writing retreat grant to foster innovative research and to build an interdisciplinary scholarly community.

Principal Investigator. $18,000 (direct costs). 7/2025–6/2026.
UCLA Hellman Fellowship
Discrimination and allostatic load
Examines how racial and ethnic discrimination contributes to chronic physiological stress, measured by allostatic load, in individuals with type 2 diabetes, and whether socioeconomic resilience factors mitigate this association.

Principal Investigator. $20,000 (direct costs). 1/2025–12/2025.
UCLA School of Nursing Intramural Grant
Technology-enabled self-management: Exploring user experience and behavior changes among older adults with multiple chronic conditions using wearable devices
Explores patient-centered digital health technologies such as wearables for older adults with multiple chronic conditions, with aims to describe their experiences (qualitative descriptive study) and to investigate habit-forming positive health behaviors using a national dataset (HINTS).

Principal Investigator. $30,000 (direct costs). 12/2024–12/2025.
UCLA Racial and Social Justice Seed Grant
Colonial mentality and health: Exploring the narratives and implications for Filipino Americans
Grounded in Sikolohiyang Pilipino, uses qualitative description to understand how the social, cultural, political, and historical meanings of colonial mentality influence Filipino Americans' healthcare experiences.

Principal Investigator. $80,000 (direct costs). 2/2023–6/2026.
Center for Advancing Solutions in Cardiometabolic Health (CASCADE), NIH/NIMHD P50-MD017366
Spatial mapping and determinants of engagement of diabetes education programs among Asian Americans
Examines factors underlying disengagement of Asian Americans from diabetes self-management education and support (DSMES) programs and maps program availability across Los Angeles and Orange counties to identify high- and low-resource areas.

Completed

Awardee. $3,500 (direct costs). 1/2025–12/2025.
UCLA Academic Affairs and Personnel, Research and Creative Activities
Research Support: Consequences of Pandemic Program
Support for research and scholarship expenses, including staff, materials, supplies, and travel.

Trainee. $12,000 (direct costs). 1/2025–9/2025.
AIM-AHEAD Bridge2AI AI-READI Training Program, NIH AIM-AHEAD (Award 1OT2OD032581)
NIH AIM-AHEAD Training Program
NIH-funded training to build AI and machine learning skills among underrepresented researchers, with a focus on health equity and data science.

Faculty Mentor. $6,000 (direct costs). 4/2024–9/2024.
UCLA Graduate Research Summer Mentorship Program
Analysis of type 2 diabetes self-management videos in English versus Spanish on TikTok (Lisa Diaz, PhD student, PI)
Examines the comprehensiveness, quality, and user engagement of English- and Spanish-language type 2 diabetes self-management content on TikTok.

Principal Investigator. $2,000 (direct costs). 3/2021–6/2022.
Sigma Beta Mu Research Conduct Grant, Sigma Theta Tau International
Exploring Filipino Americans' facilitators, processes, and outcomes of successful management of type 2 diabetes
Qualitative study of the everyday practices of Filipino Americans in their successful management of type 2 diabetes. Two manuscripts published.

Principal Investigator. $2,000 (direct costs). 10/2019–6/2020.
Frederick Lange Memorial Endowment, University of Arizona Foundation and College of Nursing
A quantitative exploration of nurses' task-technology fit within the EHR
Determined the relationship between nurses' task-technology fit and the EHR and used computational ethnography to map recurring navigation patterns to inform screen redesign.

Applied (Not Funded)

Principal Investigator. $250,000 (direct costs). 2026.
Josiah Macy Jr. Faculty Scholars Program
Learning Informed by Stories and Technology for Engaged Nursing (LISTEN)
Two-year project to develop an AI platform using large language models to create AI personas that guide students through complex clinical conversations grounded in real-life narratives.

Co-Principal Investigator (Co-I: Mayumi Saiki). $15,000 (direct costs). 2025.
NIA Stress Measurement Network
Indoor environmental exposures, stress, and metabolic health: A machine learning approach
Integrates environmental stress data with biomarkers and metabolic health markers to explore how indoor exposure burden influences physiological stress responses and diabetes risk.

Principal Investigator. $675,000 (direct costs). 2025.
NIH K23 (PA-24-185)
Colonial mentality and its impact on diabetes-related outcomes in Filipino Americans
Investigates how colonial mentality influences diabetes self-management through behavioral pathways and chronic stress (allostatic load) as a biological pathway, toward culturally responsive interventions.
Discussed and scored: 40.

Principal Investigator. $25,000 (direct costs). 2025.
AACN Faculty Scholars Grant Program
Research Access and Innovation through Statistical Empowerment with AI (RAISE-AI)
Evaluates large language models as a support tool for data analysis to expand research capacity among nursing faculty and students.

Principal Investigator. $390,000 (direct costs). 2024.
UCLA CTSI KL2 Career Development Award
Colonial mentality and its impact on Filipino Americans with type 2 diabetes
Tests whether colonial mentality affects diabetes outcomes through a physiological pathway (increased allostatic load) and a behavioral pathway (lifestyle and self-care behaviors).
Scored: 2/9.

Co-Principal Investigator (PI: Hafifa Siddiq Shabaik). $10,000 (direct costs). 2024.
Sigma Small Grants / Western Institute of Nursing
Migration and Allostatic Load Pilot Study (MALPS): Evaluation of the feasibility and acceptability of non-invasive biomarkers for chronic stress in the community setting
Explores the feasibility and acceptability of non-invasive biomarker measures of chronic stress (allostatic load) in community-dwelling migrant adults over age 50 (N = 20) in Los Angeles County.

Principal Investigator. $10,000 (direct costs). 2024.
UCLA CTSI-CERT Community Grant Award
Kain na Tayo: A nutrition-focused Filipino health project
In partnership with FYLPRO, develops culturally tailored resources to help Filipino communities navigate barriers to heart health and promote heart-healthy lifestyles through social media.

Principal Investigator (Co-I: Hafifa Siddiq Shabaik). $5,000 (direct costs). 2024.
Sigma Small Grants, Sigma Foundation for Nursing
Differences in allostatic load in Asian Americans with chronic diseases: A national sample cross-sectional analysis
Explores the association of allostatic load with individual and environmental factors among Asian American adults with chronic diseases.

Principal Investigator. $260,000 (direct costs). 2023.
Robert Wood Johnson Health Equity Scholars for Action (HES4A)
Nature and consequences of family dynamics and engagement levels among Filipino Americans with type 2 diabetes
Prioritizes family engagement and multigenerational dynamics in type 2 diabetes self-management to inform culturally focused, health-equity interventions for Filipino Americans.
